RESEARCH POLICY

The college adheres to the policy and norms for Research Promotion and Code of Ethics in Research established by Thiruvalluvar University. These guidelines apply to all research supervisors and scholars, both in the aided and self-financing streams. Additionally, Sri Akilandeswari Women's College has developed its own research policy to provide a comprehensive framework for the faculty and scholars across all research departments.

Objectives:

- Improve Research Quality: Enhance the quality of research among faculty members and scholars.

- Ensure Integrity and Ethics: Uphold high standards of quality, integrity, and ethics in research.

- Promote High-Impact Publications: Ensure publications are in UGC CARE listed, Scopus indexed, or Web of Science journals with high impact factors.

- Encourage Conference Participation: Motivate faculty members to participate in and present papers at international, national, and state-level conferences and symposiums.

- Conduct Doctoral Committee Meetings: Hold Doctoral Committee meetings periodically to review research progress.
